

RA SPEAKER UT

THE SPEAKER

Bowling Green High School
Bowling Green, Missouri

THE SPEAKER . . .

so named as a living tribute to a revered and service-minded Pike Countian, Champ Clark, who was educator; attorney; State Legislator; U.S. Congressman; and, in 1911, Speaker of the Sixty-second Congress of the United States; and who, in the presidential campaign of 1912, led on the first 27 ballots, but failed to muster the necessary two-thirds majority and was finally defeated by Woodrow Wilson.

Though born in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, in 1850, Champ gave himself in service to the people in this area for 50 years and his funeral and interment were held in Bowling Green, March 2, 1921.

Each BGHS yearbook bearing the "Speaker" name tries to render service to the student body and school it represents.

Foreword

Scenic still, this venerable old school established in 1881 as Pike College continues to suffer growing pains as young people, 470 strong, from all over Pike County throng here daily from September through May.

With the annexation of Frankford high school, classrooms bulged! Because this building alone could not accommodate all of the classes, four additional rooms at the Junior High building were furnished and pressed into use.

The school's curriculum increased and faculty numbers rose from 16 to 22.

The placid scene on this page belies the teeming life at BGHS and the 1963-64 Speaker staff invites you inside for a look at their attempt to record at least a part of this mounting tide, following the theme:

At BGHS, EVERYTHING GROWS . . .

The '63-'64 Year Begins

Students' programs are pre-planned the year before as far as possible through the school's guidance service; however, during the week-long enrollment period, many scheduling problems come to BGHS Principal, George Nienhueser's table, and each one receives serious consideration.

The enrollment area was moved from first floor at BGHS to the lower hallway and cafeteria. Enrollees started at the east end of the building and worked past check points to the west, getting schedule approval, course cards, locker assignments, activity tickets, yearbooks, etc.

Pre-school planners also included PCTA executive committee members who discuss the year's agenda.

1963-64 Pike County Teachers Ass'n. Executive Committee and (L. to R.), Jane Bucks, Sec.-Tr.; Eunice May, Pres.; Ruth Martin; Edith Kelly; Velma Birkhead, Chairman; Lucille Butler; Chester Nunn.

Entering a suddenly expanded school world are these Frankford students.

Freshmen take a look around their new "home" for the year, perhaps hoping that the traditional study hall bobcat will look more friendly the next time that they see him. (Well, that's one good reason not to use the dictionary, anyway!).

Everybody Pitches in!

BGHS growth reflected in longer lines from the first day of enrollment and new teachers really get a workout along with enrollees and parents with more forms to fill in, more papers to read, more stations to pass, more . . .

Offering Helping Hands

A "key" figure in more ways than one, Mr. Ray Peabody, demonstrates locker-opening technique for unfamiliar fingers. Still smiling, though this is probably the 175th locker (out of the 178 in use at BGHS) that remained stubbornly shut until "Just the right touch" was revealed, Mr. Peabody is in his third year on the BGHS maintenance staff.

to Smooth the Way

Trouble shooter number one (and better known as Mrs. K) sees more young humanity than ever before in her years as Principal's Secretary now that 1963-64 has contributed its crop. With four youngsters of her own, Mrs. Ed Kattleman says, "General office work, school style, was never like this." (School style includes such additional activities as motherly application of bandaids, antiseptic, and sympathy, tracking down the strayed, ferrying home the ill, brewing the reviving coffee, and being a discreet message handler).

Helping hands work both ways.

Another "handy" demonstration--this one in a classroom by shop instructor, Walter Elmore.

Administration, instruction, and civic interest combine efforts in this meeting of the minds as a Band Booster committee evaluates plans for the coming year.

. . . From the Very First Day

Fitting new band members with uniforms is one of the first undertakings of band boosters. Providing new band risers was another

Still Serving BGHS After 25 Years

Twenty-seven years ago James A. Wilson came to BGHS as a coach and seventh grade teacher. Since then he has served as a mathematics instructor and a principal. Today he is athletic director of BGHS's Athletic department. His efforts have resulted in a baseball team and intramural program. His basketball teams competed in the Missouri State Tournament in 1947 and 48.

We, the Speaker Staff of 1964, respectfully dedicate the 1963-64 Speaker to Coach James A. Wilson for his outstanding service to the Bowling Green High School.

Administration

Mr. Frank Horn, architect and engineer from AIA and associates, presents building contract to R-1 school board

Mr. Hal Jones, president of the Board of Education, is shown in his usual post conducting a business meeting.

BGHS Decision Makers

Face Mushrooming World

Superintendent of Schools Marry S. Smith, holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts degrees from Knoxville State Teachers College. He has been R-I Superintendent for three years and supervises the new school districts: Curryville, Frankford, Cyrene and Bowling Green.

Mrs. Carol Richards, Secretary to the Superintendent and Treasurer of the School Board, has been employed by the R-I school district for three and one-half years.

With Concern

for Present, Future

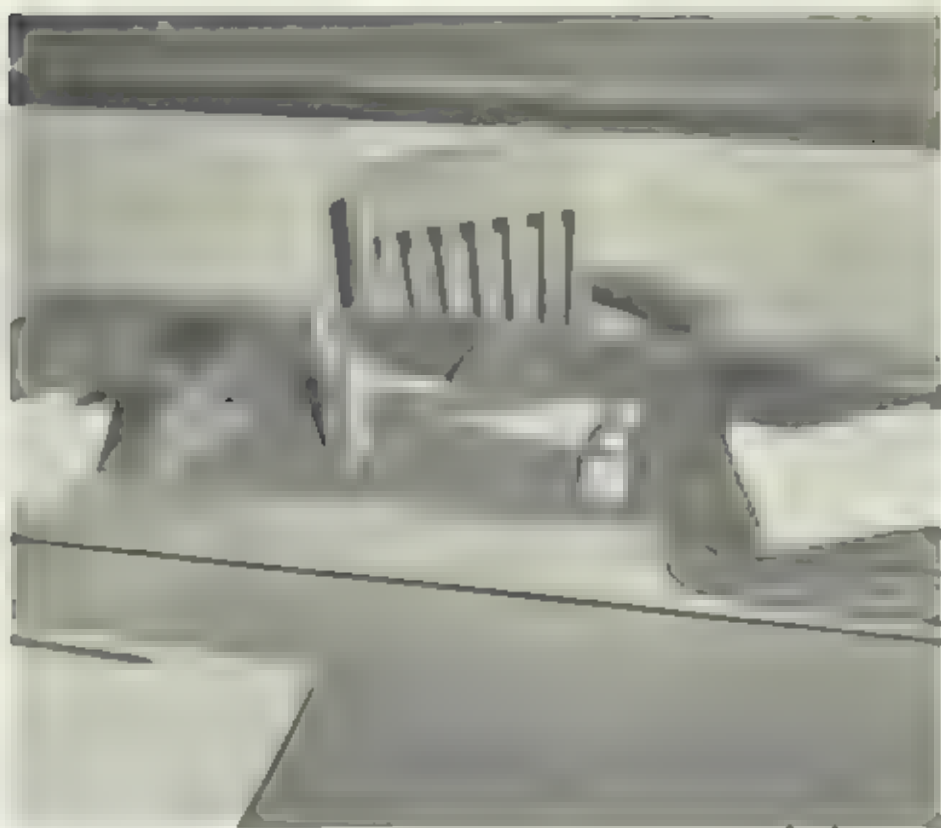

The world of BGHS passing under the gaze of Principal, George Nienhueser, for the past five years, has grown from 331 in 1959 to 464 in 1963-64.

Reflecting his and other administrators' concern for these presents and futures, college entrance percentage has climbed; the school drop-out rate has dwindled.

Mr. Nienhueser holds a Bachelor of Science and Master's Degree from the University of Missouri and has one and one-half year's graduate work beyond the Master's level.

He has been in administration for six years, in teaching for eight years and in the BGHS system for five years.

FFA Reaches New Dimensions

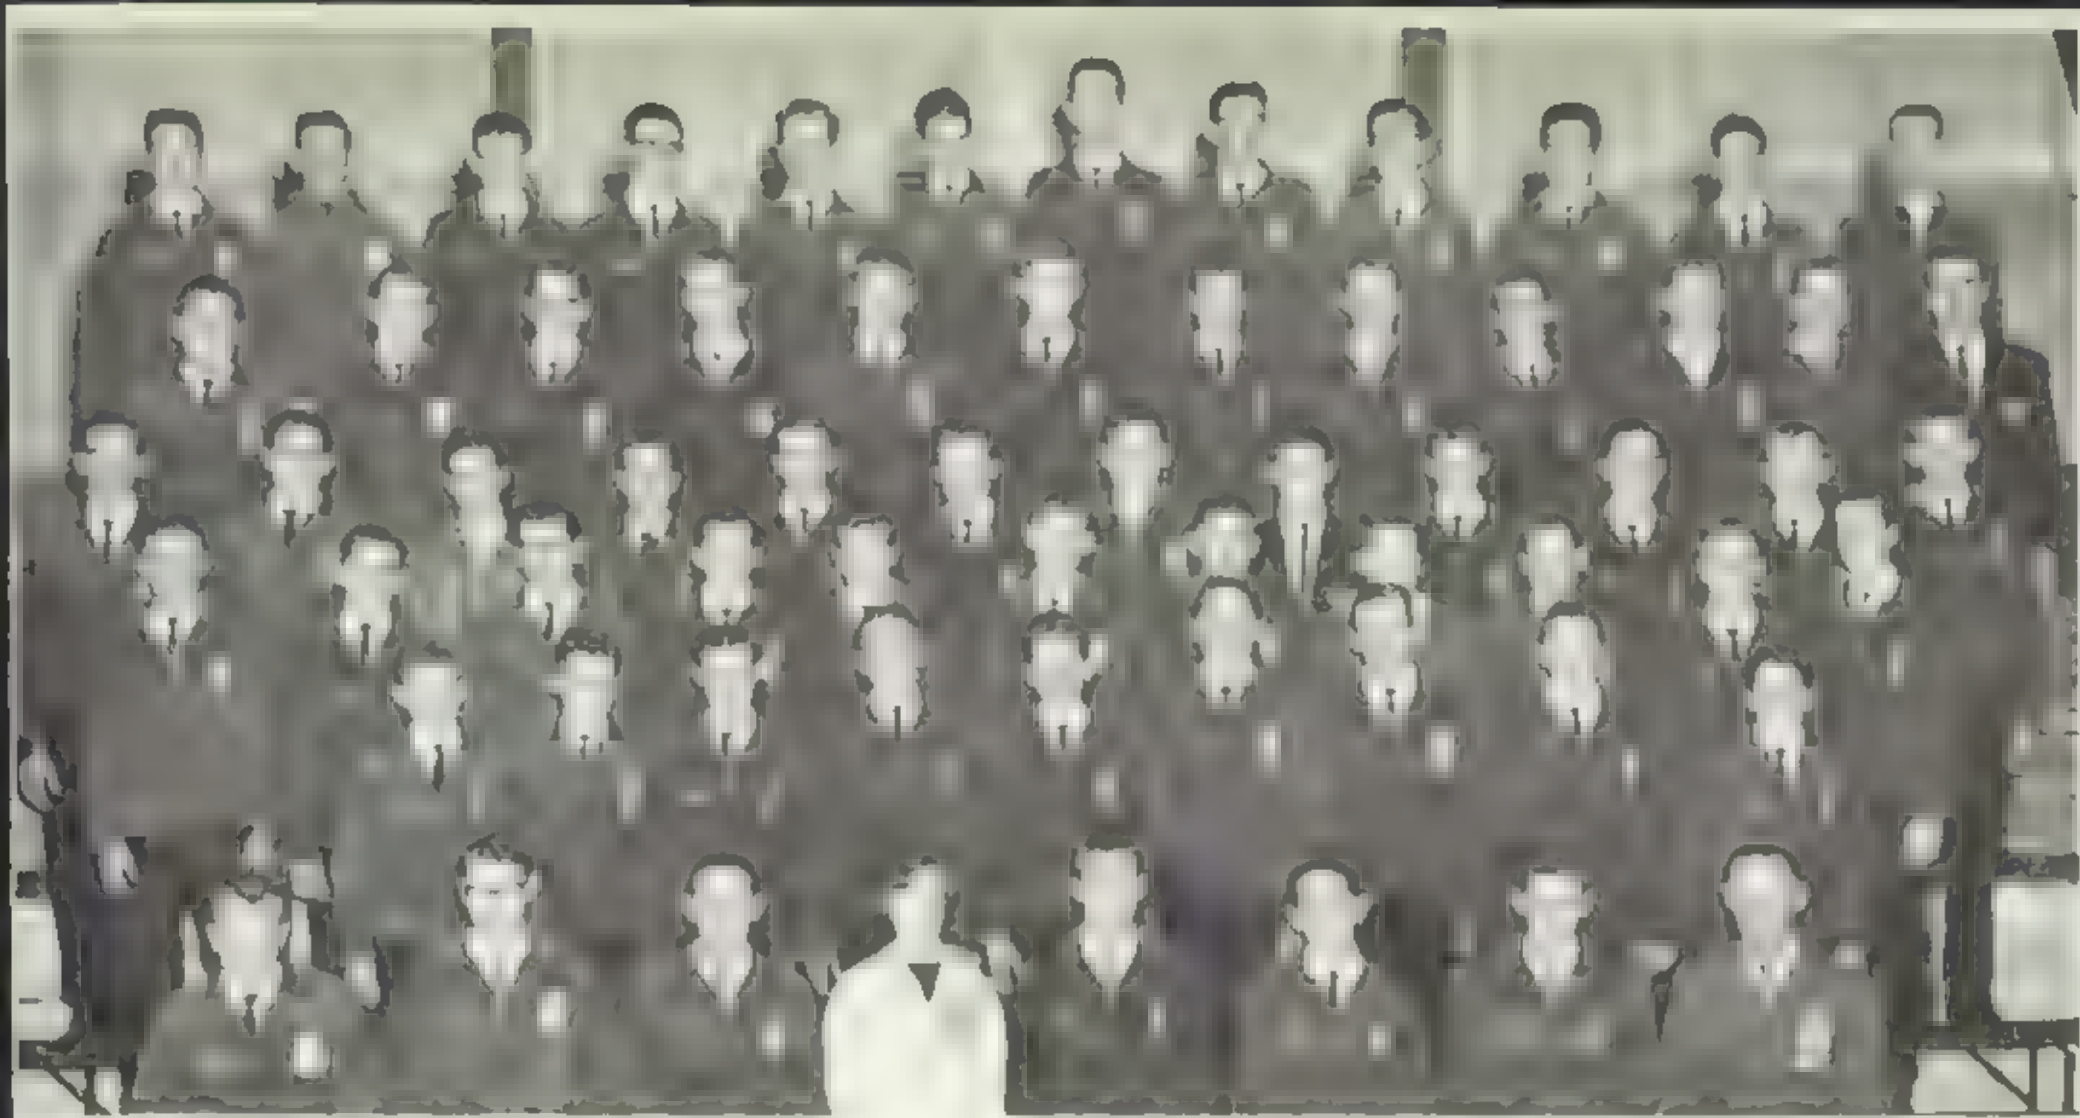

In the last three years, FFA membership has risen from 36 to 45—a fact which speaks for itself.

Active in school and community affairs, this year's BOSS Chapter followed well its own motto: "Learn, to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve, sponsoring, and activities as Parents' Night, Parent and Son Banquet, Barbecue, a turkey and two wine sales, and participating in all local and area contests, sales, and livestock shows." The chapter also provided Christmas trees for BOSS and its teachers.

New record award ribbons, checks, and trophies were earned. Rewards taken in by the boys, arising from supervised programs. One swine sale yielded a record $6,374.00, averaging $53.12 per head.

Parent & Son Banquet numbers, reaching a whopping total this year—244—ate 94 lbs. of ham, then sat back for an elaborate and thrilling show at the BOSS FFA organization. Guest speaker was John Howell (looking right) Northeast District FFA Vice-President.

In Membership, Events, Projects

Parents' night, one of the first big events of the FFA year, provides chances for boys to display leadership qualities. This activity was held in the Ag shop.

Sam Rowe "herd" a lot of the March swine sale which averaged $56 per head.

"Nooooooo, now Kay," says Mr. Mallory to his secretary, Kay Dunn, "I did NOT wear my hat today."

FHA Promotes Good Will,

Fifty-one Future Homemakers of America worked to encourage democracy in home & community life, to promote international goodwill, to foster the development of creative leadership in home & community life, and to work for good home and family life for all.

The year's monthly meetings were planned around these themes as were sessions on drop out projects and raising money to support a Korean child.

Regularly sponsored activities included Barnwarmin', Sweetheart Dance, Dress Up Day, Teacher Appreciation Day, Daddy-Date Night, Mother-Daughter Tea, Grandparent Banquet, Style Show, & FHA trip.

Quill & Scroll Adds New Members

At the heart of the publications crew at BGHS, these students qualified for Quill & Scroll membership by ranking in the top third of their classes and by doing outstanding work on school publications. STANDING, from the left, Doug Wankel (Speaker editor); Billie K. Henderson (Bobcaster editor); Bill Fisher (Ass't Speaker Ed.) SEATED: Patsy Leake (Speaker layout editor); Sandra Allison (advertising); Ellen Wilhamson (writer); and Pat Scherder (Speaker Bus. National Honor Society Stimulates

Seven seniors from a possible 20% of the 83 class membership received the honor of membership in the National Honor Society. Members of the society are chosen for scholarship, leadership, service and character.

Seniors

Juniors

Juniors made use of their allotted fifteen percent membership with 18 being chosen to represent the 123-member junior class. A faculty nominating committee selected NHS members.

Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character

Sophomores

Initiated as probationary members of high school's highest scholastic organization were 13 sophomores. Sophs are allowed 10% of the class enrollment for NHS membership.

BGHS SC representatives head up to do some representing this time at a district student council meeting at Vandenberg.

Silence is golden—well, green-back, at least for Bob Haley who is depositing a dollar bill for Silence Day money saying for every word uttered. Betsy Henderson's line?—For jibing—who says women do all the talking.

Striving to set the scene for stronger student councils at BGHS this year's group sponsored school-spirit boosters and attended area S.C. conferences.

Teachers and students were furnished with name tags for test week week science day and loyalty week were other activities planned by the S.C.

Sponsoring the school basketball at BGHS and renting tournament floors helped finance S.C. expenses including bulletin, and Christmas dance decorations.

PTA Works

PTA programs at BGHS followed these National PTA Goals

- To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community
- To raise the standards of home life
- To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
- To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child
- To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education for Growing Communion Between Persons with Common Interest

Parents and teachers enjoy fellowship of enrollment and refreshment times. Refreshments were provided by "room mothers" with four mothers from each class acting as chairman.

Squad Swells in Sounds; Yells a "Barn Burner;" Croaks Hoarsely

Ten cheerleaders instead of the usual eight led the BGHS pep squad through the 1963-64 season. "A" leaders came out in new red sweaters, "B" leaders changed their whole uniforms to red sweaters and black skirts.

Planning spirit-raising rallies were part of the pep squad's agenda for the year. BG peppers also took a great part in the Bowling Green basketball tournament—decorating the gym for the week's activities, providing flowers and gifts for the queen and each of her attendants, sponsoring a contest for visiting pep squads, and providing hostesses for each visiting squad.

Funds received from homemade candy sales and votes cast (at a penny each) for tournament queen were turned into "good things to eat," decorations, gifts, etc., for the annual athletic banquet planned and sponsored by the squad. Although most of the awards at the banquet go to the boys, letters and bars are presented to those girls who have served their organization faithfully throughout the year.

Volunteering services for the Heart-Fund Drive is just one more service rendered by this center of vitality at BGHS.

PEP SQUAD (L. to R.) At the "core of the crew," these efficient and energetic pilots inspired the BGHS pep squad throughout the year.

Assistant sponsors, and newcomers to the post were Miss Joyce Wiley, (left), Business Education Dept.; and Mrs. Anna Burke, Science Dept., (center).

Sponsor, Mrs. Molly Duncan, Home Economics Dept., was with the group last year.

Through Many The Next Day

"V" for victory and smiles for the winners from BGHS.

These pictures of precision and poise who promise to keep BGHS well supplied with able cheer leaders for years to come are the '63-64 'B' leaders: Jean Daugherty (1); June Couch; Betty Lawson; Cathy Fitzgerald; and Susan Chapman

But Always Manage Bright Smiles and Strong Voices by Next Game Time

Sweet song bursts forth once more from these "A" leaders as it often did during regular cheering sessions—this time as the girls lead a pep parade through the halls of BGHS

The girls waited while sponsors counted votes at the group's organizational meeting held early last fall. Officers and cheerleaders are chosen by ballot.

Sports

Caught in the act of serving the volleyball at a intramural game is senior, Christine Hamlett.

"One more time" . . . and it better go over the net! Teammates Pat Gray, Judy Bibb and Mary Nell Wilhoit attempt to volley the ball back to the opposing team.

Extracurricular Intramural Program

Intramurals, a sports program intended for everyone's recreation, gives students a chance to earn letters. By participating in at least half of the games to be eligible, players receive points as follows: first place, 65; second, 60; third, 56; fourth, 45; others, 25. Beginning later in the year, only 100 points were needed.

Stretching and stretching is volleyball player, Cary Dixon, as he struggles to "kill" the ball.

Offers Exercise,

Intramurals also give students the opportunity to learn good sportsmanship, to be better competitors, and to come in closer contact with their own classmates. Enthusiasts helped Coach Wilson by coaching, scoring, and timing in the season's program of volleyball, basketball, and softball (which started later in the spring)

He must eat "Wheaties!" Terry Scherder, shown displaying his muscle power at an attempt to hit the ball back across the net

Looking as if swatting at thin air are Bill Fisher and Teddy Smith.

Tommy Craig is too late to block this shot.

Competition,

"Who said that girls couldn't play basketball?"

Congratulating themselves after a hard won championship the "Stompers" headed by captain Neil Oberman, Tommy Branstetter, and Danny Lewis. ROW 2-- Niemeyer, and Sam Wankel.

"Just a couple of more inches and I think I can reach it."

Annice Straube's "Agiles," became the girls' basketball intramural champions by out scoring Joyce Bailey's "Clods" 23-13

Set New Records

Bowling Green's varsity track team won six invitational meets; the EMO conference crown; second in the Quincy Relays in class "B" with 16 schools competing; second in the district meet at Kirksville; and second in the state meet. They placed in a tie with Mexico for fifth in the Mark Twain relays with 15 large and small schools competing in one class. It was in this meet that Harvey Hendricks tied the record in the 100 yard dash with a 9.9 run. That mark also became a new BGHS record for that event.

Season Record

Standing by the Bobcats all the way, the BGHS pep-squad displays its usual loyalty to the team.

Final team statistics find McQuay leading in games played (26) field goals attempted and made (202 of 432); free throws attempted and made (124 of 153); total pts. 528 (20.3 average); and assists (55). Marshall, Feldmann, and Rowe played 25 games; Rathburn and Grote 24. Grote led in field shooting with 64.5% (102 of 158); and in rebounds with 235. Robinson shot 100% from the free throw line hitting 7 for 7.

The Bobcats outscored their opponents 1694 to 1619 averaging 64.7 pts. per game--opposition, 62.3; and tied with Troy for fourth place in the EMO conference.

Co-operative Effort

The 39th Annual Bowling Green Invitational Basketball Tournament turned out one of the largest crowds ever recorded. Bowling Green was allowed to invite only eight teams. Seedings ran: Hannibal - 1; Warrenton - 2, host - 3, Louisiana - 4, Montgomery R II - 5, Van-Far - 6, Hermann - 7, Mark Twain - 8. The first three seedings held.

Hermann's Bearcats received the sportsmanship trophy. Mark Twain's pep squad was rated as the snarpest squad in attendance. Larry Long of Mark Twain was top scorer with 61 points in 3 games, Warrenton scored the most points in a single game - 81, Van-Far won fourth and had the fewest number of fouls (8) in one game. Hannibal's Pirates also won the free-throw trophy.

Following the crown game, Miss Ann Talisterro, Louisiana HS, was crowned tournament queen. (Voting was done at the BGHS pep squad queen booth at 1¢ per vote.) Her court consisted of Miss Jane Christian, Hannibal; Miss Gayle Spradling of Van-Far, Miss Sharon Lewellan of Mark Twain; and Miss Sandra Kirk of Warrenton.

The BGHS pep squad was responsible for decorations, queen and pep squad contests, and hosting visiting pep squads. Local men volunteered as hosts for visiting teams.

Sports Season Climaxed

This year's Athletic Banquet featured guest speaker, John Bennington, Head Coach at St. Louis University; presentation of special awards; pep-squad awards; and the queen-crowning ceremony.

Receiving special awards were varsity Bobcats Frank McQuay for having the best free-throw percentage; Ervin Grote for best defensive player of the year; and Ted Rathburn, the athlete with the best four-year scholastic record.

Janet Morris, senior, was crowned queen of the banquet. Her first attendant was junior, Linda Boise; Susie Henderson, also a junior, was second runner up. Athletic boys and all BGHS students vote for the queen.

College Interest

Mounts

Seventy-eight students and 64 parents attended College Night, Nov. 13, and listened to representatives from twenty-one college universities and trade schools. Four 10 minute periods were scheduled for students to talk to the representative. Every student was assigned to three groups, the fourth period was free for attending the group of his choice.

Planned Progress Develops

Freshman Planned Progress team members Kathy Dean, Paula Orf, and Larry Grinstead represented the BG Medical Center project at the District Planned Progress program in competition with six other schools at Silex, Jan. 14, and won first place. Team alternates were Donna Whitten, John Dunn, and Amy Deters.

Civic Interest

The team received a check for $100 from Missouri Edison Manager, Mr. John Bance, under the proud gaze of faculty sponsor, Charles Foutes.

ENJOYING a change of pace, these BGHS students are dancing to the music of the Herbert Saunders Orchestra from Mexico, Missouri. Games and movies were provided for non-dancers.

Dance music, festive attire, tasty refreshments, and gay conversation was the typical scene of the annual BGHS Christmas dance.

Beginning at 8:00 p.m., and lasting until 12:00 p.m., the dance was held in the elementary school auditorium.

The BGHS student council and class officers decorated for the occasion; the tree was provided by the FFA organization.

THIS tempting buffet was provided by high-school PTA mothers, who hold an annual rummage sale to help finance the annual Christmas Dance--a regular project of the PTA.

Community Relations,

Each year BGHS's "Speaker" and BOBCASTER staffs record in words and pictures permanent and daily accounts of all activities at Bowling Green High. The "Speaker" staff edits the yearly account of all activities during the 1963-64 school year. This year the "Speaker" is adding photographs and stories of all spring activities including the Awards Assembly, Baccalaureate and Commencement, and is presenting the yearbook to BGHS students, at an autograph party to be held August 14, 1964. Weekly duties of the BOBCASTER staff include reporting day-by-day happenings that might occur at any one of Bowling Green's five schools, keeping accurate and complete files and records of the BOBCASTER and helping the "Speaker" staff meet their yearbook deadlines. The BOBCASTER staff is the Publications class of BGHS and receives one unit credit for each year's journalism course taken.

Mike and Bob hear Bobcaster praised by District Judge, Agnes Slemons.

Connie Arnold, BOBCASTER staff assistant, is shown doing one of her weekly duties, sending the BOBCASTER to neighboring schools.

Seniors Give Treasury

"Curtain Going Up" a 3-act comedy, under the direction of Mrs. Katherine Metley, BGHS English instructor, was presented by the Senior class April 16, and featured a young dramatics teacher presenting her first play and the many problems facing her. During her attempt at producing a post-Civil War play about the deep South Miss Burgess encountered an episode of missing playbooks, lovers' quarrels, jealous teachers, and an intruding janitor. Also adding to her burdens were stage struck Jocko Cuthrie and the girl who DIDN'T get the lead. Adding to the confusion was an arrogant and out-dated theater personality who refused to leave well enough alone. Backing the on-stage performers were assistants Ben Bommarito, Gary Dixon, Shirley Whitten, Clara Deters, Pat Gray, and Judy Mortera. Ushers for the performance were Judy Mortera, Ruth Williamson, Janet LaBanca, Clara Deters, Bill Unsell, E. G. Raney, and Jack McMillen.

Having a heart-to-heart talk is Norman Carver (Ted Rathburn) and play director Miss Irene Burgess (Patsy Leake). Home Ec. teacher Carolyn Moran (Bonnie Wilhoit) is seen in the background

Buck O'Hara (Mike Woods), Elsie Hunter (Nellie Copenhagen), Janet Young (Janet Morris), and Nancy Leveridge (Judy Couch) go over one of their scenes in the first act

Janitor, Tony Peterson, (Ronnie Henry) and Miss Burgess "discuss" rights to the stage while Andrew Fullbright (Ronald Branstetter), Janet Young, Nancy Leveridge, and Lorry Fuller (Billie Kay Henderson) practice a family reunion

"Eek! a mouse!" screams Nancy Leveridge and Janet Young but "brave" Euse Hunter saves the day by discovering real mice aren't made of tin.

Pilgrim

Reminding her classmates that they will grow into the country's leaders of tomorrow, Annice Straube smiles as she discusses the Sophomore Pilgrimage. Annice was chosen from five BGHS sophomore delegates to attend the April 14 tour. Her trip, attended by 300 delegates from Missouri high schools, included six hours in Jefferson City, a tour of the capitol building, and a luncheon in the Governor Hotel.

Trudie Akers, junior, posing for this picture in her usual post before school, is the 1964 BG Girls' State delegate. The Bowling Green Chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary sends one delegate from BGHS to Missouri Girls' State held at Stephens College in Columbia. A alternate chosen for this year is Perry Mudd, junior.

BOYS' STATE

Boys' State Delegate from BGHS is Don Shaw, junior. Don is eligible to attend the Boys' State Convention held at Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg, July 17-21. Sponsored by the American Legion, the Convention is a miniature Missouri which follows all the state's laws, is run by a state government. Don is sponsored by the BG Lions Club and was selected on scholarship character, leadership, & community spirit bases.

Queen's Court

Through the cooperation of Davey O'Donnel, KXOK disc-jockey, the 1963-64 Speaker Queen and King have been chosen. The pictures of the candidates were sent to St. Louis and judged following nominations at BGHS.

Two representatives, a boy and a girl, were elected from each class. Top vote-getters in the senior class were Shirley Whitten and Bill Traynor. Junior candidates were Linda Hanson and Harry David Benn. Sophomores, Winifred Hutcherson and Eddie Horton, were elected by their classmates. Paulf Orf and Bucky Boudinier were chosen as Freshman candidates. (Ed. note: King candidates were not aware that their pictures were to be taken when they were; consequently, did not have white shirts)

HE GAVE HIS LIFE--WHAT CAN WE GIVE--Billie K. Henderson, Bobcaster Editor

We are continuing to carry on the tradition left to President Lyndon B. Johnson and help him through his trying period of adjustment.

As students we can begin to take care of ourselves and begin to mold ourselves into better Americans. President Kennedy gave all he could give for his country including his life.

Is it our duty to us and to the world to set a desirable example for those who are looking up to us and develop a deeper sense of patriotism for our country. There is much we can do if we act before us the example of President John F. Kennedy, his courage, spirit, reverence, and the so freely given, but our nation might survive.

THE TORCH IS PASSED TO THIS GENERATION. Please without Journalism I Writer

Since we are the new generation, the future voters and active citizens of America, that without we can receive the torch of human freedom?

For the torch is our duty, the symbol of humanity, and if we cannot bear the torch, then the human freedom symbolized by it, is only a just surely, the end that freedom cannot die if our nation is to exist.

Yet, we are not too young, neither are we too weak to bear the responsibility that our freedom gives us.

We daily use our privileges, why should we not be responsible for them?

Note: these paragraphs are excerpts from editorials appearing in Volume 3, Number 12, THE BOBCASTER, which were later admitted for judging at the district newswriting contests at Kirksville, and won no ratings. They were included with this memoria, in keeping with the theme of this book "Everything Grows" as a glimpse of another kind of growth which took place at BGHS during the past year.
